FOOTNOTES ISSUE 142: BECOME A PART OF OUR LEGACY AS AN OUTDOOR TRIP LEADER

Leading trips into the great outdoors is at the core of Sierra Club's mission to explore, enjoy, and protect the planet. Be a part of our 125-year legacy!

Becoming an Outdoor Trip Leader allows you to:

- Spend time outdoors, which makes you happier and healthier;
- Volunteer, which helps you make new friends, expand your network, and boost your personal and professional skills;
- Design trips that reflect your interests and passions to create eye-opening experiences for others; and
- Connect with your community, including under-represented people in the conservation movement, to the outdoors.

Our Spring 2018 Outdoor Trip Leader Training 101 will be taking place Saturday, March 24 at the Georgia Sierra Club's office in Decatur. At this training, you will receive the necessary training to start leading local trips. After you complete this course, you'll work with an existing Trip Leader to plan and lead your provisional trip. Then, pending approval, you'll become a certified Outdoor Trip Leader!
