

PLAN TODAY. PROTECT TOMORROW.

Power in Planning

Sierra Club’s strength has always come from its people, and every victory that the Tennessee Chapter has achieved started with a bold plan. That same spirit of foresight and collective action can help shape a healthy future for all of us —starting with the personalized plans we make today.

When you include a gift to the Tennessee Chapter via Sierra Club or Sierra Club Foundation in your estate plans, you’re taking meaningful action today that will ensure lasting protection for Tennessee tomorrow.

Simple Ways to Give

Because most planned gifts are given after your lifetime, they don’t affect your current budget—and many are simple to set up.

The two most popular options are:

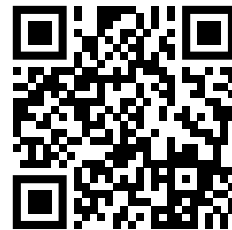

1. A Gift in Your Will or Living Trust

A few sentences is all it takes to include the Tennessee Chapter in your will or trust.

2. Beneficiary Designation

You can name the Tennessee Chapter as a beneficiary of your retirement plan, IRA, donor advised fund, or life insurance policy.

Two Organizations, One Mission

In 1966, the Sierra Club took out a full-page ad in The New York Times to rally public opposition against federal plans to dam the Grand Canyon. The IRS deemed this action as lobbying and revoked Sierra Club's tax-exempt status—but the message resonated nationwide. The public outcry powered by grassroots organizing helped stop the dams and preserved one of America's greatest natural wonders.

Today, Sierra Club and Sierra Club Foundation—two organizations with shared values and separate tax statuses—work together with strong compliance safeguards to ensure charitable funds are used only for permitted purposes.
