MONEY IN, ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTIONS OUT

After receiving over $74k from mining interests, the first bill Tiffany sponsored as a senator was a bill to open the state up for mining. He and his co-author admitted that the mining company authored the bill.

TIFFANY ♥ FOSSIL FUELS

Despite skyrocketing energy costs, Tiffany constantly sponsors and votes for Big Oil, to fast tracking projects for their profit, and he even voted against a bill to stop energy companies from exploiting energy emergencies to raise fuel prices.

UNRESTRICTED AI

Tiffany voted for 10-year ban on state and local AI regulation.

He also wrote a letter to the Evers Admin and called on them to create a moratorium on retiring dirty coal plants so they would stay open to support AI and data centers

SELLING OFF OUR PUBLIC LANDS

Tiffany has introduced legislation multiple times to sell off part of the Chequamegon-Nicolet forest to a private company for its profit. He also called logging the forest one of its "primary purposes."

He has undermined funding public lands from the Stewardship Fund to aid local land conservation purchases.

BEWARE!

TOXIC TOM

In the Assembly, Tom Tiffany was so harmful to the environment that he earned the nickname "Toxic Tom."

WISCONSIN CHAPTER

"OBSESSED WITH WOLVES"

Despite the big issues Wisconsinites are facing, Tiffany has prioritized being able to hunt Wisconsin's wolves over anything else in Congress.

So much so that his colleague, Haley Stevens, said he was "obsessed with changing the laws to hunt wolves" and that it was all he ever talks about."

WORSENING OUR WATERS

Tom Tiffany pushed legislation to fast-track high-capacity well permits during a drought.

He also prevented local governments from passing shoreland zoning ordinances that would have helped protect water quality

Tom Tiffany has a long legacy of voting against the environment.
