

Our Lower Hudson Group Conservation Committee works on issues directly related to the protection of plants, animals and natural resources. These include water issues, watershed protection, mobilizing against development proposals that impact trees, preserving wetlands and species habitats, species extinction, preservation of natural spaces, Pollinator Pathways, Planting Westchester, noise pollution, air pollution, zero waste initiatives, native plants and invasives.

Contact our Conservation Co-chairs Linda Brunner at loki.lamb@gmail.com and Martha Upton at marthaupton76@gmail.com.