

Rockland County branch of Sierra Club: A local group meets monthly online to discuss Rockland oriented issues: local action on climate change, issues around our drinking water, and PFAS chemicals. Among our accomplishments: stopping an energy intensive desalination proposal, and working for stricter regulation of PFAS. Contact Peggy Kurtz at 845 709-0802 or pkurtz@gmail.com.