

Dyane Osorio – Mother Lode Chapter Director

Dyane Osorio is our new Mother Lode Chapter Director. She co-founded the higher-education nonprofit, Dream. Develop. Do. and is the current Executive Board's Vice President. She has over 7 years of nonprofit experience. Dyane is passionate about the axiom that education is the universal equalizer.

Her professional experience includes serving as Press Secretary for Assemblywoman Mariko Yamada and being a certified expert translator for Ecuador's regional superior court. Prior to these positions she was the Campaign Coordinator for the Children's Partnership – ALL IN for Health - a statewide health coverage enrollment campaign. She was also a Policy Consultant for Jim Gonzalez & Associates. She prepared reports for the firm and its clients on various public policy issues including environmental justice, higher education, elections and voter participation.

Dyane attended Cal State University, Northridge where she received her B.A. in Political Science and dual Minors in Economics and History.

She loves to hike, bike and travel. Her hiking adventures include summiting Mt. Whitney, Las Torres del Paine in Chile, and Cotopaxi in Ecuador (one of the highest active volcanoes in the world).

Join us in welcoming her to our team.
