New DuPage Bike Shop Values the Environment Along With Craftmanship

A passion for cycling, a vision for environmental sustainability, and a commitment to craftsmanship are the values at the heart of Recycled Cycling Bike Shop. Operating out of a rehabbed bank building at the corner of Butterfield and Batavia Roads in historic Warrenville, Recycled Cycling is positioned at one of the busiest hubs on the Illinois Prairie Path and in the largest section of connected forest preserves and protected wetlands in Northern Illinois.

Recycled Cycling is owned and run by two longtime DuPage County residents, Bob Marcuccelli and Jeremy Behnken.
