

Sierra Club Named Best Watchdog

For its 36th Annual Best of SLO County Readers Poll (appropriates theme of “Happy Campers”) New Times asked its readers to pick their favorite businesses, leaders, restaurants, and community members as the Best Of SLO County.

Many thanks to the readers of New Times for voting for the Santa Lucia Chapter as the Best Environmental Watchdog in the county!

Sierra Club intern Gianna Patchen, Political Chair Alex Mintzer, and Chapter Director Andrew Christie take delivery of the Chapter’s “Best of SLO” award.
