Sunday, May 15, 8:30 a.m. Salmon Creek Trail to Spruce Creek Trail to Dutra Camp. Join the leader on this moderately strenuous 8.4 mile in the Silver Peak wilderness of southern Big Sur. There is approximately 1700 ft. of elevation gain. This is an out and back hike. We will be gone for most of the day. There are good views of Silver Peak and Spruce Creek Canyon is very pretty. After hiking out of the canyon, we will cross grasslands to Dutra Camp, which is the site of an old homestead. Bring plenty of water, lunch, appropriate footwear and dress for the weather. Risks are ticks and poison oak. Limited to 10 participants. To sign up go to San Luis Obispo Sierra Club Meetup Group. For information and meeting location, call Chuck Tribbey, 805-441-7597.

Sunday, May 22, 9:00 a.m. High Ridge to Duna Vista Trail. Moderately strenuous 12-mile loop trail around Lake Lopez takes an average of 6 hours to complete. Trailhead Location-From Highway 101 in Arroyo Grande, take the Grand Ave. exit and continue east on W. Branch St. through the town of Arroyo Grande for 0.8 miles-turn right on Huasna Rd. for 1.6 miles-continue straight onto Lopez Dr. for 8.3 miles (Husana turns into Lopez Rd.). Turn right on Hi Mountain Road before you get to the park entrance. Pass the left turn to Upper Lopez Canyon and look for the staging area on your left. Dress in layers, bring at least 3 liters of water, wear sturdy shoes and hat. Rain or extreme heat cancels. No participant limit. Contact Andrea Ortiz @805-934-2792 for more info.

Sunday, May 22, 2-3:30 p.m. Sierra Club Historic Walk of San Luis Obispo: Post-World War II Rebirth. Before today's tree-lined streets and Mission Plaza, but with pool parlors and soda fountains back then, take a guided downtown stroll to learn about SLO city life from the late forties to its transformation in the seventies. Meet at the corner of Santa Rosa and Pacific Sts. Leader: Joe Morris, 805-549-0355.

Sunday, June 12, 9:00 a.m. Reservoir Canyon loop hike in San Luis Obispo. Join the leader on this moderate 7-mile hike near San Luis Obispo. There is about 1200 ft. of elevation gain. We will hike up the newer trail, cross the ridge, and come down the older trail. There are great views of San Luis from High School hill. There is an interesting stone seating area to explore before we head down. Bring plenty of water, lunch/snacks, appropriate footwear, and dress for the weather. Risks are ticks and poison oak. Limited to 10 participants. To sign up, go to San Luis Obispo Sierra Club Meetup Group. For information and meeting location, call Chuck Tribbey, 805-441-7597.

Saturday, June 25, 2-3:30 p.m. Sierra Club Historic Walk of Old-Town Cambria. Easy, guided stroll past Victorian cottages, 1880s storefronts, saloons, and Chinese temple in Cambria's East Village to learn the stories of its early pioneers.
