SIERRA CLUB ANNOUNCES ENDORSED CANDIDATES

MADISON - The John Muir Chapter of the Sierra Club today released its list of endorsements to date for U.S. Senate, Congress, and State Legislature in the 2018 elections.

“The Sierra Club is very proud to announce these endorsements,” said Bill Davis, Chapter Director. “These candidates are committed to protecting Wisconsin families’ health, air and water and to building a clean energy economy that works for Wisconsin.”

The John Muir Chapter has endorsed Tony Evers for Governor, Tammy Baldwin for Senate, and six candidates for Congress including Randy Bryce, Tom Palzewicz, and Dan Kohl. We also endorsed 92 candidates so far this year for the State Legislature. Incumbent officials were judged based on their overall environmental voting record, public statements and activities while in office. Challengers were measured by their responses to questionnaires and interviews, environmental platforms, public service, and public statements.

The 2017-18 Sierra Club Legislative Scorecard was used in part to judge incumbent candidates and can be found at: <http://www.sierraclub.org/wisconsin/lobbying-elections/political>. 44 state lawmakers running for reelection scored a perfect 100% on the scorecard and have been named “2018 Environmental Champion” for their demonstrated commitment to preserving Wisconsin’s environment. Additional Environmental Champions that are not up for reelection are Senators Jon Erpenbach, Dave Hansen, LaTonya Johnson, Mark Miller, Fred Risser, Patty Schachtner, Jennifer Schilling, Lena Taylor, and Kathleen Vinehout.

“The GOP voted lockstep to continue its all-out assault on the environment last session”, concluded Dave Blouin, Political Committee Chair. “Electing strong environmental leaders who will work hard for Wisconsin’s environment is a priority for the Club. We will do everything we can to help pro-environment candidates win.”

The Sierra Club will mobilize our members to work for endorsed candidates. Our grassroots member volunteers will help distribute literature, contact neighbors and friends, make phone calls to voters and get out the vote. We will announce additional endorsements soon.

The list of endorsed candidates follows on next pages.
