Iowa Climate Facts and Solutions References

References

2. https://climate.nasa.gov/scientific-consensus/
3. https://climate.nasa.gov/causes/
6. https://climate.nasa.gov/effects/
7. https://climate.nasa.gov/scientific-consensus/

Recommended Resources

Midwest Report - Heat in the Heartland: Climate Change and Economic Risk in the Midwest
https://tinyurl.com/ClimateRisks-Midwest

NASA - Global Climate Changes
https://climate.nasa.gov/effects/

https://skepticalscience.com/ This website has material about climate myths and misinformation.

David Wallace-Wells, “The Uninhabitable Earth”, New York Magazine, July 10, 2017. This article is a terrifying wake-up call.

An Inconvenient Sequel: Truth to Power, produced by Al Gore, 2017

The Iowa Climate Statement. In 2017, the statement focused on increased humidity and its effects. Scholars from universities and colleges in Iowa have signed onto the Iowa Climate Statement every year it has been issued. To see the Iowa Climate Statements for this year and previous years, see https://iowaenvironmentalfocus.wordpress.com/iowa-climate-statement/

Rod Boshart, “iowa scientists find increasing humidity”, Cedar Rapids Gazette, August 10, 2017