Angeles Chapter – Sierra Club Leadership Training Program (LTP)

The seminar, conducted by the Leadership Training Committee, is held twice a year, on a Saturday or Sunday, in the spring and fall. It provides trainees with the skills, knowledge and good attitude that are essential to becoming a safe and informed leader of Angeles Chapter outings. The LTP prepares graduates for certification at one of nine levels:

- O-1: Applies to uncomplicated outings such as single-day hikes on trail <sup>①</sup>
- O-2: Applies to overnight, away-from-the-car outings on trail <sup>①</sup>
- I: Adds navigation skills for outings involving cross-country travel <sup>②</sup>
- M/M-Rock/M-Snow: Add the skills for leading 3rd class rock and/or uncomplicated snow climbs <sup>②</sup>
- E/E-Rock/E-Snow: Add the skills for leading 4th class rock and/or more difficult snow climbs <sup>②</sup>

① Requirements for becoming a leader at the basic “O-1” and “O-2” levels:

- Current Sierra Club membership
- Participation on five Angeles Chapter trips or hikes
- Passing an open-book pre-seminar exam from the online Leader’s Reference Book (LRB)
- Attendance at an all-day LTP Seminar
- Completion of Red Cross Standard/Basic First Aid plus Adult CPR or equivalent training
- Satisfactory completion of a provisional outing.

② I/M/E These ratings require more skills, experience and technical checkoffs. Refer to the LTC website (sierraclub.org/angeles/leadership-outings) for more information.

NOTE: These requirements, except for the pre-seminar exam, do not need to be completed before the seminar.
